1.1.3 By the end of first grade, students will demonstrate knowledge of the organization of print when reading and writing.

- Identify the front cover, back cover, and title page of a book.
- Follow pages sequentially when reading a book.
- Follow words from left to right and top to bottom on a printed page.
- Identify print (rather than pictures) as the feature being read.
- Identify roles of author and/or illustrator.

1.1.4 By the end of first grade, students will read and demonstrate comprehension at grade one level, using a variety of strategies.

Example indicators:

- Make predictions based on title, cover, illustrations, and text.
- Retell stories in sequence (beginning, middle, end).
- Identify important story elements (main character, setting, events).
- Connect what is read to real-life experiences (developing a foundation for later literary analysis).
- Distinguish between truth and make-believe in literature.
- Recall details from fiction and nonfiction text.
- Read and explain their own writing and drawing.
- Choose books appropriate for their own interests, purposes, and reading level.
- Define vocabulary from literary selections.
