Common Core State Standards

Correlated to the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts, Grades 1-6

The following pages contain references from components in Making Connections that align to the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts. Making Connections is a supplemental reading comprehension program designed to provide explicit instruction in skills and strategies. As such, the program provides support for the following CCSS standards in grades 1-6: Reading: Literature; Reading: Informational Text; and Reading: Foundational Skills (grades 1-5 only). This correlation is intended to illustrate the program's approach to these strands.

For purposes of this correlation, the following abbreviations apply: TE = Teacher's Edition; SB = Student Book; U = Unit; T = Text; RA = Reproducible Assessments; N/A = Not Applicable.

	Key Ideas and Details
RL.1.1	Ask and answer questions about key details in a text.	SB/TE: Each of the fiction selections and the fiction Reproducible Assessments at this level include a one or two-page series of questions that are asked of the students. Students must understand the details in the text to answer the questions. As the selection is used, students have ample opportunities to ask questions as they read.
RL.1.2	Retell stories, including key details, and demonstrate understanding of their central message or lesson.	TE: Texts 1–3 in each Unit include a “summarizing” activity that requires students to retell the text.
RL.1.3	Describe characters, settings, and major events in a story, using key details.	SB: The questions that accompany each of the fiction selections at this level require students to use key details to describe characters, settings, and major events. TE: By working through each of the lessons for fiction selections, students are given opportunities to identify and recall key details about characters, settings, and major events.
