

Word Skills in Rhythm and Rhyme

Level 2 with a Frog Named Zing rhyming and phonemic awareness	unexpected spellings (sight words)	written expression: research and reports, sentence expansion, narrative, descriptive, persuasive, expository compound words	word patterns (can, man, ran) word families (run, ran, running)	webbing activities	digraphs sorting words animals foods weather family numbers colors	homophones	plurals	apostrophe possessives	student-made books	spelling and reading	antonyms and synonyms proofreading (test format and in everyday writing)	contractions	irregular verbs	letter cards and word cards visual skill building	months and days of week	double letters	vocabulary development critical thinking skills	vowel sounds and letters	puzzles and games	often-confused words alphabetical order	similes and onomatopoeia	silent letters	classic stories and rhymes vowel and consonant substitutions	capitalization punctuation mechanics	suffixes -s, ed, ing, er, est	abbreviations and other word shortcuts

My name is _____.

Sorting Words

It's your turn. Sort the words. Name the categories. Then add three more words to each.

apple purple taco four yellow one milk red twenty cheese gray pink ten bread two

Choose one category. Write the words in abc order.

My name is _____.

Proofread for Compound Words

Circle the compound word in each set that is spelled right.

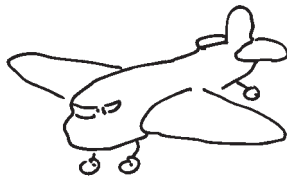

fireplace

fripase

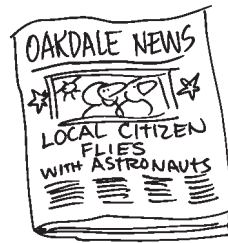

sellboat

sailboat

orplay

airplane

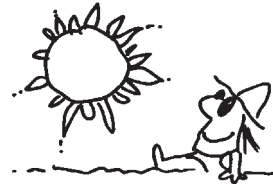

newspaper

newpopper

feetbal

football

shinesun

sunshine

cowboy

boycow

bathtub

battub

noflake

snowflake

cupcake

upcake

Compound words are long words, but they are easy to spell. Spell each word part of the compound word: weekend

Write compound words and underline the two word parts.